Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not teach or suggest the use of a camera control system wherein a tilting direction control device is adapted to display information on the current tilting direction of a camera which corresponds to a designated second camera index and information on the controllable range in the tilting direction of the camera in response to designating the second camera index, by using a scroll bar.

Furthermore, the prior art does not teach wherein the tilting direction display control device displays the information of the current tilting direction of the camera and information on the controllable range in association with the change of shape of the second camera index.

Furthermore, the prior art does not teach that the scroll bar for designating the tilting direction of the camera in association with the change in shape of the camera index can be formed separately from the camera index and that the this scroll bar is displayed in response to designating the camera index.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
